Biography

LUPO combines the best of classic rock with your favorite current hits for a wild and tasty mix of live music. Based in the Chicago area, the band plays throughout the Midwest at festivals, clubs, casinos and private events - from short, high energy sets to full headline performances.

LUPO was formerly known as Canary Blue, but changed its name in early 2017 to reflect its edgy, powerful style. The band is lead by vocalist Lynn Lupo who brings her strong, versatile voice to every performance. Backed by some of the best musicians in the Chicago area, LUPO delivers the songs you want to hear, just the way you remember them. Friendly and professional, the band understands that music can make or break an event, and they insure everyone has a great time.

The band is known for their big stage sound, killer vocals, and wide-ranging song list – from the light pop sounds of Bruno Mars and Cyndi Lauper to the driving rock of Aerosmith and Heart. LUPO plays a unique variety of music – songs you remember and love, but won't hear from other bands. People call LUPO the best they've seen, and the band never finishes a show without requests for an encore.

Feed your wild side.... Come out and see us live!
